Prevailing as the largest trade event of its kind in East Indonesia, Food, Hotel & Tourism Bali (FHTB) returns for its 14th edition, reinforcing its pivotal role in supporting Indonesia's burgeoning food & beverage, tourism, and hotel industries. Since its inception, FHTB has exemplified and continues to embody the spirit of economic and entrepreneurial possibility for domestic and international suppliers looking to cater to the growing needs and discerning tastes of club, hotel, and restaurant owners, purchasing managers, tour operators, distributors, retailers, and wholesalers.

FHTB has consistently demonstrated its lasting impact and ability to expand business opportunities within the hospitality and food & beverage industries. This year, the event spans three days, showcasing an impressive array of exclusive products and services, including the most decadent food and beverages, food service equipment, hospitality supplies, coffee, wine and spirits, retail goods, and packaging solutions.

As the leading biennial international trade event, FHTB serves as a premier platform for connecting and networking among exhibitors and buyers from the region's top resorts, hotel chains, restaurants, and importers. It provides an unrivaled entry point into East Indonesia's thriving and lucrative market, continuing to accelerate sustainable business growth and enhancing the global standing of these sectors. This is particularly crucial as Indonesia aims to achieve its Industry 4.0 goals by 2030.

The Food & Beverage sector in Indonesia is poised for significant growth, with revenue expected to increase at an annual growth rate (CAGR 2021-2025) of 10.79%. This growth trajectory is projected to result in a market volume of US$4.346 billion by 2025. Furthermore, the tourism sector, vital to the region's economy, saw a substantial increase in international visitor arrivals, reaching 11.68 million in 2023, a remarkable 98.30% increase from the previous year. Bali alone accounted for 5.25 million of these visitors, representing over 44% of the total international visitor arrivals, underscoring the importance of such trade events in supporting and sustaining this growth.

FHTB's role in facilitating business and fostering innovation is more critical than ever as it helps participants navigate the evolving market dynamics, meet new partners, and leverage emerging opportunities. As Indonesia's hospitality and food & beverage industries continue to shine globally, FHTB remains a cornerstone event driving progress and prosperity in East Indonesia.

UNLOCKING INDONESIA'S THRIVING BUSINESS POTENTIAL

The Food, Hotel & Tourism Bali (FHTB) trade event highlights promising business opportunities in East Indonesia's food, hospitality, and tourism sectors. Indonesia's food & beverage market is projected to reach US$4.346 billion by 2025, with a CAGR of 10.79% from 2021 to 2025. In 2023, international tourist arrivals surged by 98.30% to 11.68 million, with Bali attracting 5.25 million visitors. As the Indonesian government maps out strategies for rapid development, digitization in economic and financial sectors could position Indonesia as the seventh-largest economy by 2030. The country aims to achieve high-income status by 2045, with a circular economy potentially adding up to Rp 638 trillion (US$42.2 billion) to GDP by 2030. FHTB supports these goals by providing a premier networking platform, connecting exhibitors with key buyers, and showcasing innovative products, driving sustainable business growth in line with Indonesia's Industry 4.0 vision.

ACCELERATING SUSTAINABLE IMPACTS IN THE HOSPITALITY, FOOD & BEVERAGE INDUSTRY

Our event is part of Informa Markets and the Informa Group. Sustainability at Informa focuses on the long-term impacts we have on customers, colleagues, the communities we work in, and the environment. Many of our stakeholders are clearly telling us that sustainability (social, economic, and environmental) is something that is no longer a nice to have but a necessary part of any event. We want to make sure we're meeting those expectations and we believe that being sustainable is the right thing to do. We also recognise that it's not just about the way we produce our events and products but recognizing that we have a role to play in providing a space to work in partnership together with our markets to inspire the sustainable development of the industries we serve. More information about our work so far can be found on www.informa.com/sustainability including our latest sustainability reports.
