Prevailing as the largest trade event of its kind in East Indonesia, Food, Hotel & Tourism Bali (FHTB) returns for the 13th edition to support Indonesia's food & beverage, tourism, and hotel industry. Throughout its 13 years reign, FHTB exemplified and continues to embody the spirit of economic and entrepreneurial possibility for domestic and international suppliers of the food, hotel, and tourism industry looking to break into the growing needs and discerning tastes of the club, hotel, and restaurant owners, purchasing managers, as well as tour operators, distributors, retailers, and wholesalers.

After bouncing back due to the global pandemic for its 12th show, FHTB continues to show its everlasting impact and expand business opportunities within the hospitality, food & beverage industry. This year FHTB returns for its 3-day exhibition and once again showcases an array of exclusive products and services ranging from the most decadent food & beverage, food service and equipment, hospitality, coffee, wine & spirit, retail, and packaging. This leading biennial international trade event is a platform for connecting and networking exhibitors and buyers from the region's leading resorts, hotel chains, restaurants, and importers providing an undisputed entry point into this thriving and lucrative market opportunities, especially for East Indonesia and continue to accelerate sustainable business growth to help the sectors shine globally and making Indonesia 4.0 towards 2030. Revenue in the Food & Beverage sector is expected to show an annual growth rate (CAGR 2021-2025) of 10.79%, resulting in a projected market volume of US$4,346m by 2025.

INDONESIA'S PROMISING INDUSTRY BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

Indonesia is a country of enormous economic potential. As the Indonesian government designs a roadmap to implement several strategies for jumpstarting the nation's development, according to the President of the Republic of Indonesia, in the event that digitization in the economic and financial sectors grows rapidly and efficiently, the country is expected to become the seventh-largest economy in the world by 2030.

Indonesia harnesses digitalization to raise productivity and growth, which will help the country achieve its goal to raise its per-capita gross domestic product to the high-income level by 2045. As stated by the Indonesian Minister of Trade, adopting a circular economy in Indonesia's key sectors might add between Rp 593 trillion (US$42.2 billion) and Rp 638 trillion to the country's gross domestic product (GDP) by 2030.

Food & Beverage:*

By 2030, projected spending on food and beverages will reach $194

The Gross Merchandise Value (GMV) of the transport and food delivery industry is expected to grow up to

US$ 16.8
billion in 2025

Indonesia's consumer spending for food and beverages will increase by more than

5%
annually until 2030

Hospitality:*

$ 1,835.6

billion of the global online travel market is estimated to reach by 2031

$22

billion of Indonesia's market share is expected to increase the tourism and hotel market until 2026

83% of global travelers were researched and think sustainable travel is vital until 2026

Digital Growth:*

Up to 23 million more jobs are forecasted to be created by automation in Indonesia than they are lost by the year 2030

74.8 million digital users in the F&B segment is expected to reach by 2025

$124 billion is projected to be reached by Indonesia's digital economy in 2025

ACCELERATING SUSTAINABLE IMPACTS IN THE HOSPITALITY, FOOD & BEVERAGE INDUSTRY

Our event is part of Informa Markets and the Informa Group. Sustainability at Informa focuses on the long-term impacts we have on customers, colleagues, the communities we work in, and the environment.

Many of our stakeholders are clearly telling us that sustainability (social, economic, and environmental) is something that is no longer a nice to have but a necessary part of any event. We want to make sure we're meeting those expectations and we believe that being sustainable is the right thing to do.

We also recognise that it's not just about the way we produce our events and products but recognizing that we have a role to play in providing a space to work in partnership together with our markets to inspire the sustainable development of the industries we serve.

More information about our work so far can be found on www.informa.com/sustainability including our latest sustainability reports.

HOW IS FHTB SUSTAINABLE?

Our event is powered by renewable energy making the electricity usage carbon neutral
